years old, if so, the details thereof, State-wise;

(b) whether Government are aware that according to these old rules, Indian prisoners get much lesser and worse quality of daily diet than foreign prisoners;

(c) whether it is also a fact that the prisoners in jail in the country do not get warm blankets and clothes for cold winter months; and

(d) if so, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) to (d) Prisons' is a State subject as per Entry 4 of the State List of the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India. It is essentially for the State Governments to amend and update their Jail Manuals depending upon the need. However, available information indicates that the State Governments, by and large, have been revising their Jail Manuals from time to time.

Diet scales for prisoners have been prescribed as per local requirements and food habits, etc. Woollen blankets and clothes are also provided to prisoners during the winter season keeping in view the weather conditions.
